Form CRS

MacKay Shields LLC ("we" or "us") is an investment adviser registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). We offer investment advisory services. We are an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of New York Life Insurance Company ("New York Life"). New York Life also owns other investment advisers and broker-dealers registered with the SEC (our "affiliates"). Some of our employees, including some of our senior officers, are registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") as representatives and principals of our affiliate NYLIFE Distributors LLC ("NYLIFE Distributors"). NYLIFE Distributors is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of New York Life that is registered as a broker-dealer with the SEC. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important that you understand the differences between them. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We provide you with investment advisory services directly to clients who establish separately managed accounts with us. We also provide investment advisory services as a sub-adviser to accounts in programs offered to you by unaffiliated broker-dealers. The broker-dealers offering these programs (commonly referred to as "wrap-fee programs") will charge you a single fee for investment advice, the execution of securities transactions with a broker-dealer (brokerage commissions), the safekeeping of assets (custody), and account administrative services. One of our affiliates, New York Life Investment Management LLC ("NYLIM"), acts as investment adviser to your account in the wrap-fee program, and we provide operational, administrative and sub-advisory services to your account. Either as investment adviser or sub-adviser our role is to make decisions regarding the purchase and sale of securities in your chosen investment strategy. We monitor the investment strategy for compliance with its investment guidelines. For accounts in wrap-fee programs, other forms of monitoring are also done by NYLIM, the unaffiliated broker-dealers offering the wrap-fee program, or SEI Global Services, Inc., a third-party administrative service provider to the wrap-fee program. The investment products in the wrap-fee programs are not limited and include a broad range of stocks, bonds, exchange-traded funds and mutual funds. The wrap-fee program accounts we advise typically require a minimum account size of $100,000, though the minimum account size may be lower in some circumstances. For more detailed information on the services we provide, please see Items 4 and 7 of our Form ADV, Part 2A.

If you have established a separately managed account with us, you will pay us either an asset-based fee or a performance-based fee as set forth between us in a management agreement. If your account is part of a wrap-free program, you will pay an asset-based “wrap fee” to the broker-dealer that offers your wrap fee account (and we will receive a portion of the wrap fee charged by the sponsor). An asset-based fee is based on a percentage of the value of the assets in your account. The higher the value of the assets in your account, the higher a fee you will pay; this gives us the incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. A wrap-fee covers investment advisory services in addition to brokerage commissions, custody services, and other administrative services, as described above, and is therefore higher than a typical asset-based advisory fee. You will typically pay your wrap-fee quarterly. In addition to the advisory or wrap-fee, you will pay other fees and charges, including: transfer taxes, electronic fund and wire fees, retirement account fees, margin interest, foreign investment fees, auction fees, borrowing fees on short sales, odd-lot differentials, costs associated with corporate actions, activity assessment fees, exchange fees, other charges mandated by law, and certain other transaction charges or fees. In addition, in certain instances, we may execute securities transactions for you through a broker-dealer other than the sponsor of your wrap fee program and you will incur brokerage commissions for these transactions. Some fees you will pay are built into the cost of buying, or on the proceeds of selling an investment.
For example, a broker-dealer will build the fee it charges into the price it charges you to purchase a bond (called “mark-up”) or into the price that you will receive when you sell a bond (called a “mark-down”) and fees charged by investment product sponsors (e.g. the advisory fee charged by a mutual fund sponsor) will reduce your return on those products.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For more detailed information on the fees we charge, please see Item 5 of our Form ADV, Part 2A.

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

- Proprietary Products. We, along with our affiliates, also serve as investment adviser to mutual funds, exchange-traded funds and alternative investment products. In some instances, we may recommend that you purchase one of these mutual funds, exchange-traded funds or alternative investment products. Our financial professionals receive compensation for the sales that result from these recommendations giving them an incentive to encourage you to invest in these products; however, this compensation does not increase the advisory fees or costs you pay. We also benefit from an increase in the asset-based investment management fees that we or our affiliates earn on these investment products as a result of your investment in them. As a result, we have an incentive to encourage you to invest in these proprietary investment products.

For more detailed information on our conflicts of interest, please see our Form ADV, Part 2A.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are our employees and earn a regular salary, as well as other compensation such as bonuses. Certain of our financial professionals who are responsible for the sale of interests in collective investment vehicles that we or our affiliates sponsor also receive compensation based on the amount of assets they service, the specific products they sell, and the revenue we earn from their advisory services or recommendations.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

Yes. A free and simple search tool to research us and our financial professionals can be found at Investor.gov/CRS.
